

GTG Privacy Policy

The Glengarriff Theatre Group is committed to protecting the privacy of users of gtg.ie and to this end, have developed the following Privacy Policy to help you understand how your personal information will be processed and looked after. This current policy was updated in September 2018.

Any data that you share with us via gtg.ie will be processed and stored in compliance with the EU General Data Protection Regulations, as enacted in the Data Protection Bill 2018.

This website may include links to other external sites. The Glengarriff Theatre Group is not responsible for the content or quality of any material contained on these sites and links should not be taken as an endorsement. We would advise you to check the privacy policy of any website that you may have concerns about.

Collection and Use of Personal Information

The information that you provide to us will be used only for its stated purpose. It is our policy never to share your information with any third party. We will never sell your information or disclose it to external parties unless obliged to disclose such information by a rule of law.

When you make a registration for your child or children, you will be asked for your name, email address and phone number. Our legal basis for collecting this information is that of 'Contractual Necessity'. We ask for this data in order to process transactions and fulfil your request – including keeping you updated about the event and any changes or cancellations. We will also ask for the child's name, clothes size, date of birth, gender and any special needs. The data you provide will be kept for a maximum of 18 months from the date of your requested registration unless you request it to be removed earlier.

What do we use your information for?

The information we collect from you may be used in any of the following ways:

- To assist in casting the children in the pantomime.
- To determine costume sizes.
- To populate the programme for the pantomime.
- To create mailing lists for future correspondence.
- To create distribution lists for future SMS communications.
- To be aware of any special needs of the children.

What about Credit or Debit Card information?

- Any credit or debit card payments made online are securely processed via Stripe. Your details are input using portals provided by, processed and retained by this third-party purely for the purpose of completing that transaction. Credit or debit card details are not stored by or accessible to Glengarriff Theatre Group once processed.
